

Teacher Training in Neurodiversity and Specific Learning Difficulties.

Do you wish it had been offered when you did your teaching training?

Well...Now you can

There is a now a new online, Accredited PD course in Specific Learning Difficulties and Neurodiversity

In schools today there are many neurodiverse students, including those with autism, dysgraphia, ADHD, dyscalculia, dyslexia and speech and language disorder. Knowing how to profile and offer teaching and learning support strategies for these students can be challenging when teachers are juggling many different issues in their classrooms each day, added to the NCCD legislation for collecting data.

Would you like to better understand how SpLD's affect an individual's level of motivation, engagement, and achievement? Then this course is for you!

Written by International SpLD experts and accredited in the UK, the USA and Australia (NESA) this course will allow you to accrue 4.5 PD hours and there's no written work or assignments!

Who is this training for?

This is core training so it's for any educator of students from early years to tertiary level, including; lead-teachers, teachers, teacher aides, learning support staff, psychologists, counsellors, speech therapists, home schooling parents and parents of children with SpLD.

What you will learn:

- The co-existence, signs and symptoms of the most common occurring specific learning difficulties including Dyslexia, Dyspraxia, Dysgraphia, Dyscalculia, Autism, ADHD and Specific Language Impairment. This training goes one step further and addresses the impact of Anxiety and Trauma on learning.

What you will take home:

Video-based training, consisting of 7 x 30 minute (approx) entertaining tutorials to fit into your schedule and...

- 100s of practical, easy to implement teaching strategies to benefit all of your students
- Multiple samples of student profiles (Long Term Plans)
- Multiple samples of IEPs (Short Term Plans)
- The ability to understand the link between the latest research and best practice
- An incredible toolkit of resources including:
 - Profiling CHECKLISTS for across the age range
 - STRENGTH PROFILERS for across the age range
 - IT Manual
 - SpLD Manual
 - SpLD Dictionary
 - 3 Posters on school learning difficulties
 - Parent teacher meeting scaffold
 - Multiple weblinks for further support

Here's a sneak peek inside the course

<https://getintoneurodiversity.com/ttfsn-spldan/>

You can read what others are saying here

<https://getintoneurodiversity.com/ttfsn-testimonials/>.

If you are a team leader you can set up multiple teachers or educators from your school or educational institution to complete their training as a whole school approach.

Use the code LEARNFAST for a 10% discount

Sign up here:

<https://getintoneurodiversity.com/ttfsn-signup/>

Warm regards,

Liz Dunoon & Jillian Zocher